ROYAL SHOWGROUNDS | PIETERMARITZBURG
COVID-19

On 15 March 2020, a national state of disaster was declared in South Africa in light of the COVID-19 outbreak (per government gazette 43096). In keeping with the instructions of the President of the Republic of South Africa, the Honourable President Cyril Ramaphosa, per the public address delivered on 23 March 2020, the Republic of South Africa was placed under lockdown from Thursday, 26 March 2020. Government gazette 43107 subsequently issued by the Department of Co-operative Governance and Traditional Affairs placed a prohibition on gatherings. After due consideration of further inputs from the University’s COVID-19 War Room team, a decision was taken by University Leadership to cancel the 2020 April Graduation Ceremonies.

A virtual conferral of Degrees and Diplomas took place on 29 May 2020. The University retained the original approved graduation programmes and dates for record purposes.

Agu, Osmond Chigozie .................................................................................................................. Economics
Thesis: The Effects of Oil Price Movements on Poverty, Economic Growth and Inflation in Nigeria
Citation: The thesis examined the effect of oil price fluctuations and its transmission mechanism on various macroeconomic indicators in Nigeria. Using Autoregressive-Distributed-Lag-Model, Variance-Error-Decomposition, and Impulse-Response-Functions, the study concluded that despite the massive income generated from this product, its price fluctuations has an effect on poverty and other macroeconomic factors in Nigeria. It was recommended that Nigeria diversify the economy’s sources of revenue to hedge the effect of global oil price fluctuations
Supervisors: Professor P Nyatanga and Dr A Omolade

Issau, Kassimu, BMgtStudies(UCapeCoast), MCom(Mkt)(UCapeCoast) .................................................. Marketing
Thesis: Business Orientation and Performance of Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises’ (SMEs) in the Selected Metropoles in Ghana: The Mediating Role of Marketing Capabilities
Citation: The thesis determines the role marketing capabilities play in the nexus of business orientation and performance of Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises (SMEs) in developing countries, particularly Ghana. Having identified the challenges facing SMEs, despite their enormous contributions across the globe, the study provides some strategic recommendations on how to handle SME hurdles.
Supervisor: Dr SS Soni
Jordan, Sonwabo Seedwell, Bachelor of Commerce(UFH), BComHons, MCom ............................. Information Systems And Technology
Citation: This qualitative study explored the efficiencies and challenges engendered by the deployment of Enterprise Content Management solutions at selected South African universities. Findings include the surprisingly low levels of user adoption and the IT project centricity of ECM deployments. The study demonstrated the limited or non-applicability of the IS Success model and the greater relevance of technology acceptance to understand barriers to organizational-wide acceptance of ECM technology.
Supervisor: Professor BW Mcarthur

Mudondo, Chenjerai David, BA(UZim), BCom(MktMgt)Hons(MidStateU), MCom(MktStrat (MidStateU)) ............................................................... Marketing
Citation: Chenjerai David Mudondo is a lecturer at Great Zimbabwe University and holds a M.Com Marketing Strategy, B.Com Marketing Management. His PhD thesis explores the impact of Social Media Marketing (SMM) on commercial bank customers’ behaviour from a Social Exchange Theory perspective. The findings reveal a significant relationship between SMM and customer behaviour and concludes that banks employ SMM to support offline marketing efforts to enhance customer satisfaction and loyalty.
Supervisor: Professor KK Govender

Senooane, Belinda Chiedza, BSoSc, BSocScHons, MCom .............................................................. Marketing
Citation: This study brings South African children into the theories of consumer culture and sociology of consumption. This descriptive, convergent mixed methods study established how tweens engage in symbolic consumption through their use of and relationships with brands. This research challenges assumptions and generalisations about child consumers and advances our understanding of African children's involvement in consumer culture. The results enabled the development of a Socioecological Model for research with tweens.

The Graduation Ceremony

The graduation ceremony has a long history and is steeped in tradition. It dates back to the establishment of the first universities in Europe in the 12th century.

The Chancellor

“Chancellor” is an office that goes back to Roman times: the original chancellor or cancellarius (as the office was known), regulated access to the Roman Tribune. In medieval times, the office became associated with the heads of writing departments of the early kings. Because so few people were literate, a chancellor was necessarily learned. This is why the heads and spokespersons of the early universities were also accorded this title. More recently the office has become largely symbolic and the executive head of a university is its vice-chancellor. One of the Chancellor’s primary roles is to confer degrees at the graduation ceremonies.

Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng is the third Chancellor of the University of KwaZulu-Natal.

The Mace

The University of KwaZulu-Natal Mace was designed and executed by local sculptor Mr Zamokakhwe Gumede and is carved from an indigenous wood, Drakensberg bottlebrush (umBande), gathered from the artist’s home near Bergville.

The head of the Mace is made up of three opened book-like forms, suggestive of scholarship but also of the massive landscape forms of our province, onto each of which is placed a ruler, a pen and a pencil. These refer respectively to the scientific and computational, the text-based and the creative sides to the University’s work. Below this are an encircling set of heads, representing the diverse university community. The whole is surmounted by an alighting secretary bird (iNtungunono), an elegant and active bird found throughout the province and equally at home on land or in the air. At the foot of the Mace is a hoof-like shape, giving a sense of contact with the soil of Africa.

The carrying of the mace in the procession symbolises the university’s status as a degree awarding institution.

Academic Dress

The wearing of gowns by judges, ministers, teachers and scholars is an ancient and significant custom. By wearing a gown when receiving their degrees and diplomas, the graduating student participates in this long tradition and joins hands with students past and present.

The hood conveys the most amount of information with the addition of braid or coloured linings differentiating the different qualifications. The colour of the band or hood lining represents the College, each of which has its own colour.
Convocation

The Convocation of the University of KwaZulu-Natal is the statutory body consisting of all alumni and the academic staff (current and retired) of the University. On graduation, graduates and diplomates automatically become members of Convocation which is the largest stakeholder body with over 140 000 members. Convocation provides a link with graduates, past and present, and through this structure graduates have the opportunity to play a continuing role in the affairs of the University.

After being capped by the Chancellor, each graduate moves across the stage and hands the hood to the Robing officer who represents the Convocation of the University. The Robing officer places the hood upon the graduate’s shoulders and, in so doing, symbolises acceptance into the Convocation of UKZN.

The University Logo

The original University Logo was officially launched on 27 February 2004 and it is a powerful visual symbol through which the University projects an image of excellence. In addition, it emphasises the University’s standing and integrity within the province of KwaZulu-Natal and within the academic and business communities, at home and abroad. Above all, it provides an identity around which internal stakeholders – staff and students – unite.

The African shield symbolises the protection of our most valuable assets, namely, education, culture and, by extension, African scholarship. The globe with multi-coloured rays epitomises a rising sun, a new beginning and acts as a symbol of enlightenment.

Further, the globe represents the University as a global player, producing world-class graduates, while the multi-coloured rays embody diversity – race, culture, language – as well as social values. The book/wave/wings, which underscore the visual, represent the foundation of knowledge, the spirit of the eastern seaboard, and soaring to new heights.

the University logo represents a University that is rooted in and responsive to Africa’s unique qualities, challenges, diversities and strengths, while, at the same time, nurturing and protecting African Scholarship.

On 3 June 2010 the current logo, with the isiZulu translation was approved.

GAUDEAMUS IGITUR

Gaudeamus igitur, juvenes dum sumus;
Gaudeamus igitur, juvenes dum sumus;
Post jucundam juventutem,
post molestam senectutem,
Nos habebit humus, nos habebit humus.
Ubi sunt qui ante nos in mundo fuere?
Ubi sunt qui ante nos in mundo fuere?
Vadite ad superos, transite ad inferos,
Ubi jam fuere, ubi jam fuere.
Vita nostra brevis est, brevi finietur;
Vita nostra brevis est, brevi finietur;
Venit mors velociter, rapit nos atrociter,
Nemini parcetur, nemini parcetur.
Vivat Academia, vivant Professores,
Vivat Academia, vivant Professores,
Vivat membrum quodlibet,
Vivant membra quaelibet,
Semper sint in flore, semper sint in flore.
